

Going East? Listen:

When you reach Ogden you can go aboard a through Standard or Tourist Pullman, running via Rock Island System by way of the Scenic Route through Colorado, thence to Kansas City, St. Louis or Chicago.

Rock Island Tourist sleepers seem "like home" in their completely comfortable and restful atmosphere. They are as neat as wax, are manned by Pullman conductors and porters and in addition to this, they are in charge of a Rock Island excursion manager.

The Rock Island has three Eastern gateways—Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis. Direct connection in Union Stations at all three, for all important points in Eastern and Southern states.

Investigate Clatsop Sands.

Hon. Jas. W. Welch, president of the chamber of commerce is in receipt of an important letter from David W. Day of the United States Geological survey relative to the rich sands in the rivers and on the beaches of Clatsop county, which suggests the importance of taking immediate action of having these sands tested. It will be remembered that Senator Fulton secured an appropriation in congress for making the examinations amounting to $10,000. From experiments already made from samples, there is no doubt but there is immense wealth in the sands both of gold and iron which can be developed at very little expense. A special meeting of the chamber of commerce has been called for tomorrow night to take some action in the matter and to send a car load of sand to Portland for examination. Clatsop county has boundless resources, all that is necessary is a little enterprise in developing them. It is to be hoped that members and citizens will attend the meeting and assist in building up what Mr. Day believes to be an important industry in Clatsop county.

Malar-Seafeldt.

The wedding of Mr. George Malar, a prominent merchant of this city, and Miss Laura H. Seafeldt, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seafeldt, was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents at 1706 Harrison avenue. The home was beautifully decorated with flowers, vines and growing plants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Seymour Short under the impressive rites of the Episcopal church and was witnessed by a number of friends of the contracting parties. Mr. Frank Deveney officiated as best man and Miss Christine Malar was bridesmaid. After receiving the congratulations of their friends, and partaking of a wedding dinner, the happy couple left for a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will make Astoria their home.

The Vital Question.

She—I learned so much at cooking school!
He—Did you learn how to keep a cook?—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Already There.

"Of course," said Miss Pert, "if he should propose to you you will accept him."
"I don't know," replied Miss Passay. "I should want to be sure that he will love me when I am old."
"But his proposal will be proof that he does, won't it?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Point of View.

The Beauty—I've had lots of poems written to me, both serious and humorous, but I've kept only the serious ones.

The Other Girl—They were better than the others?
"Oh, no, but they were much funnier."—Smart Set.

A Sure Sign.

When the grass is faintly greening in the shelter of the fence,
When the darling maple blossoms make the tree top's shadow dense,
When the baby dandelions peep above the chilly mold,
Hiding in their startled bosoms all their wealth of splintered gold,
Then we rightly may conjecture that the spring is drawing nigh.
With its snowy clouds a-sailing in a sea of purple sky,
But the only sign that's certain—you've observed it, like as not—
Is the bunch that's batting grounders on the old back lot.

Mickey Peters, Fatty Johnson, Skinny Brown and Nobby Watts,
Limpy Wilson, Buster Thompson and that saucy Rabbit Potts—
The gang that pools their pennies and their nickels and their dimes,
Kicking, as they note the total, on the hardness of the times.
Then they go and buy a bat or two and bargain for a ball,
Though they owe the man a little when they've pugged up their all.
But we know that spring's approaching—that it's nearly on the spot—
When we see the bunch bat grounders on the old back lot.

TALK IT OVER.

With People You Know. With Astoria People.

No evidence can be stronger than the direct testimony of people you know. The public expression of friends and neighbors is the proof of merit we offer. If you still remain a skeptic, talk it over with this testifier.

D. E. Duncan, who is employed with his brother, at the Astoria Soda Works, 426 Duane street, says: "I had been troubled with a weakness of the back and kidneys for a number of years. There was a constant dull, aching pain in the loins and as far up as the shoulders. Not only did my back ache, but there was a weakness from the kidney secretions which was very annoying and disturbed my rest. I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and one day I stepped into Charles Rogers' drug store and got a box. I found them to be a great relief. After the first few doses I felt better. I know of others who have used them with the same good results."

Huge Task

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend the great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by C. Rogers, druggist. Price, 50 cents."

MASS OF SORES

Awful Suffering of Little Boy from an Itching Humour

CURED BY CUTICURA

Not One Square Inch of Skin on His Whole Body Unaffected

"My little son, a boy of five, broke out with an itching rash. Three doctors prescribed for him, but he kept getting worse until we could not dress him any more. They finally advised me to try a certain medical college, but its treatment did no good. At the time I was induced to try Cuticura, he was so bad that I had to cut his hair off and put the Cuticura Ointment on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body that was not affected. He was one mass of sores. The bandages used to stick to his skin and in removing them it used to take the skin off with them, and the screams from the poor child were heart-breaking. I began to think that he would never get well, but after the second application of Cuticura Ointment I began to see signs of improvement, and with the third and fourth applications the sores commenced to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but it finally yielded to the treatment. Now I can say that he is entirely cured, and a stronger and healthier boy you never saw than he is to-day." ROBERT WATTAM, 4922 Center Ave., Chicago, Ill., Dec. 30, 1897.

SIX YEARS LATER Mr. Wattam writes

"Your letter of the 21st in regard to the case of my little boy at hand. I am truly thankful to say that the cure effected by the Cuticura Remedies has been a most thorough and successful cure to date." Chicago, Feb. 23, 1903.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 50c. per box of 50). Ointment, 25c. Soap, 25c. (in form of Toilet Soap, 25c. per box of 50). Paris 5 Rue de la Paix; Boston, 127 Columbus Ave. For terms and conditions, see box of Cuticura.
